Bürgenstock Hotels & Resort Lake Lucerne Recognized With Condé Nast Traveler's 2018 Hot List Award

Condé Nast Traveler announced the winners of its 2018 Hot List with the Bürgenstock Hotels & Resort Lake Lucerne recognized as one of the 102 hottest hotel openings of the last year.

The Condé Nast Traveler Hot List recognizes the best properties around the world that have opened their doors in the past year and uncovers the top trends inspiring modern travelers. The full list of properties on the 2018 Hot List can be found on cntraveler.com.

"Our annual Hot List is an all-encompassing review and selection of our favorite new hotel openings of the past year," said Pilar Guzmán, editor-in-chief of Condé Nast Traveler. "By celebrating the very best, we hope to help set a standard for those who follow so that when we return decades down the road, we will still recognize and be transformed by these places."

"We are thrilled that the discerning editors of Condé Nast Traveler are honoring our resort," said Bruno H. Schöpfer, Managing Director of the Bürgenstock Selection. "It is a true testament to our efforts over the last nine years."

"This recognition should help spread the word about Switzerland's newest luxury resort which just happens to be in Americans' favorite Swiss destination," said Robert P. Herr, General Manager of the Bürgenstock Resort.
